A MYTHOPOEIC AND MIDDLE EARTH CALENDAR FOR 1969
compiled by Glen GoodKnight

The year of 1969, if based on the Shire-reckoning, began on December 21, 1968. The week in the Shire begins on Saturday and ends on Friday, but since Midyear's Day is a day not counted as a day of the week, but falls between a Friday and Saturday, all day in the last half of the year are displaced one day. Thus if you wish to mark your calendar, all days after June 21 are moved down one. June 22, 1969, in the Shire reckoning, is Sunday not Monday, and so forth to the end of the year. In this calendar I have listed only the first day of Each Middle Earth month in the scheme. Each month is thirty days long. This makes 360 days, with the five intercalary days being Yule I, I Lithe, Mid-year's Day, II Lithe, and Yule I.

Of note: Tim Kirk has done a beautiful Middle Earth calendar. Not like this one, but with six scenes from Middle Earth in various colors. It is part of the Christmas supplement to Shaggy. It has the regular calendar system. It is well worth the fifty cents, and can be ordered from: Shaggy, 745 n. Spaulding, Los Angeles, California, 90046.

Readers who are Tolkien fans may already be aware of The Tolkien Society of America. Ed Meskys, Thain of the Society, publishes the TOLKIEN JOURNAL, Box 233, Center Harbor, N.H. 03226.
 A yearly membership in the society ($2) includes 4 copies of the journal and copies of the GREEN DRAGON when it infrequently comes out (a news flyer). Ed also publishes a more general fan-zine, which also has some Tolkien material: NIEKAS.

The Los Angeles Science Fantasy Society (LASF3) meets at 330 S. Berendo, every Thursday evening at 8 p.m.
